- All applicants are required to submit an online portfolio of creative work. Portfolios that do not meet the specifications listed below will not be reviewed. Only digital submittals will be accepted. Hard copies will not be reviewed.
- Portfolios will be assessed on the quality of the content, as well as the overall approach to the presentation of work.
- The portfolio should include at least five (5) samples/projects documenting your creative ability.
- Consider the format and sequence of images that best presents your ideas and what you want to communicate.
- Text descriptions should be concise.
- Identify the context of the work: academic, personal, or professional.
- Identify whether a work is an individual project; a group project (describe your specific role); or done as part of a larger team, such as in an office (describe your specific role).
- Identify the duration of the project: three weeks, semester-long, two years, etc.
- Portfolios will be viewed on computer screens and monitors of different sizes (laptop, display, large format display; all with an aspect ratio of 16:10).
- For those applying to more than one program:
A separate portfolio must be uploaded with each application. These may be identical portfolios, if appropriate, or distinct portfolios for each application.

加拿大建筑设计（硕士）院校信息-2020 版本

- For those applying for advanced standing:
The portfolio is an opportunity to demonstrate the level of your current design ability, as well as your potential to pursue advanced work in the program to which you are applying.
- For those applying without previous design or background:
The portfolio should contain evidence of creative potential in other fields, and/or creative projects pursued independently.
- Specifications
- File type: Adobe PDF file.
- File size: 100 MB maximum > or less, total PDF file size.
- File format: One (1) single PDF file.
Each page of the PDF will be viewed separately.
Be sure to designate your layout viewing preference when saving your file:
2 page view = spreads (2 pages side by side in 1 page of PDF)
OR
Single page view = (1 page of PDF)
- Portfolio page limit: 30 spreads, (including title page and table of contents).
OR 30 individual pages (including title page and table of contents).

作品集：

- Your portfolio is submitted digitally in your online application. The PDF can be a maximum of 20 letter-sized (8.5" x 11") pages and must be under 10MB in size.
- Tip: Use 150 pixels-per-inch or even 72 ppi images, or try saving the file as a Reduced Size PDF ("Save as Other") in Adobe Acrobat, to bring down the file size.
- The intent of the portfolio is to highlight design potential. You should use the portfolio to showcase your interests and accomplishments, and to show how you could contribute to a demanding professional program.
- Your portfolio should demonstrate your ability to conceptualize projects in two and three dimensions through a variety of media. The portfolio may contain drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, installation, printmaking, ceramics, fashion design, and woodworking, as well as other media. Showing your creative process and ability to think conceptually will also provide context for your work.
- You should organize your portfolio into a clear, well-crafted document. The portfolio should have concise, descriptive text on each page to adequately explain the work. If working in collaboration with others, please clearly indicate your contribution to the submitted work.

- Portfolios should be submitted in a single PDF document of no more than 50 pages or 30MB, formatted on 8.5x11" pages horizontal format. The design and format of the portfolio should be kept simple so that it can properly illustrate the projects within without obscuring or overpowering them.
- The purpose of the portfolio is to show creative and critical thinking, as well as a developed architectural ability. Applicants should include art and design work that illustrates those characteristics. The portfolio work itself should illustrate the concepts and ideas that applicants are mobilizing in their work, not simply technical ability. In order to make the ideas of the portfolio works clear, applicants should include a one paragraph description of each work, and caption all drawings where explanation is required.
- The work that applicants can show could have been done in previous undergraduate architecture degrees, as well as work done in offices, or independently. Any collaborative work must be clearly labeled with the names of all collaborators and an outline of the applicant's role in the collaboration. Any work done in an office under the supervision of a senior architect must include the name of the firm, that of the supervising architect, and a description of the role the applicant performed in the project. All images in the portfolio not produced directly by the applicant must clearly credit name of the drawing's author.
