➢ Submit 18-20 examples of your work through Slideroom. Curate and edit your portfolio to present your strongest, most challenging, and imaginative work. These may include documentation of static 2D or 3D works, dynamic sound, video, performance projects, socially engaged or participatory initiatives, or other work.

➢ You may upload research drawings and images from your sketchbooks in one PDF document of maximumsix pages. This single PDF will be considered as one example of your work in your portfolio.

➢ ECU will not evaluate portfolios that include items outside of our requirements.

➢ Additionally, select 2 examples of work from your portfolio and write a 100-200 word contextualizing statement that discusses the work through lenses such as the historical or contextual grounding of the work, the material exploration involved in creating the work, or the research you embarked on in preparing to make the work. Please include these descriptions when uploading the visuals to Slideroom.

➢ Applicants are required to submit a portfolio of creative artworks up to a maximum of 15 creative/research works. Your portfolio and letter of purpose must be uploaded to the Design and Computation Arts website by clicking on the "Upload Portfolio" button. The portfolio must NOT be uploaded to the Admissions Application Centre.

➢ You may choose to send additional original work to the department ONLY if it is a specialized work such as a book work/livre d'artiste, promotional packaging, limited edition print design, textile work.* When sending original work also provide your student ID and proof of application.

➢ Each work included in your portfolio should be presented with care. Take the time to document your work properly and collate individual works into a portfolio that is assembled into a structured and cohesive portfolio submission.

➢ GENERAL PORTFOLIO TIPS
1. Maximum 15 pieces of creative/research works.
2. A table of content must be included for all material submitted for review. Each work must be clearly numbered and labelled with the applicant's name, the title of the work, brief description explaining the work, the date of completion, size and the medium(s) used.
3. In the case of collaborative projects, applicants must clearly define their contribution to the project.
4. File size: each image should not exceed 3 MB. Video and sound files should not exceed 60 MB
5. If your portfolio dossier is submitted as a website, then copy/paste the URL online.

6. Websites must have a SHORT URL for easy access. Use the Google URL shortener at goo.gl.
